Establishment of Women's Grievance Cell

The Staff members and the Students

This is to inform everyone concerned that the college has established a Women's Grievance Cell with immediate effect. The primary objective of this cell is to provide a safe, secure, and supportive environment for female students and staff members and to address their grievances related to any form of harassment, discrimination, or unfair treatment within the campus.

The Women's Grievance Cell will function as a platform where concerns can be raised without fear, ensuring confidentiality and prompt redressal. The cell will also work towards creating awareness about women's rights, gender equality, and the prevention of harassment through various programs and initiatives.

The composition of the Women's Grievance Cell is as follows:

Chairperson: Swati Lathia

Members:

1. Varsha Katarmal
2. Dolly Vadnagra
3. Devika Purohit
4. Dhruvika Kanabar

Any student or staff member wishing to file a complaint may do so by submitting a written application to the Chairperson or to the Principal or by emailing at the official email ID.

All are encouraged to cooperate and contribute towards maintaining a respectful and inclusive environment in the institution.

Dr. TauseefKhan Pathan
Principal
